

Values

LXP seeks and promotes a godly lifestyle for both staff and student volunteers. We embrace four key lifestyle values:

Community Living

LXP embraces community living lifestyle. Student volunteers share bedroom space, living rooms, kitchen and bathrooms. Daily tasks and activities are also shared. Personal characteristics of patience, considering others above self, love, and mutual respects are crucial to community living lifestyle. Community living will challenge individualistic lifestyle tendencies but promotes character development. Community living lifestyle as a value is highly encouraged at LXP.

Servanthood

The heart of LXP is Servanthood. Those called to lead are called to serve others making servanthood leadership itself, because the essence of leadership is to serve. Besides serving is the key that opens a door to others' hearts; those we serve we disciple, those we serve we influence, those we serve we earn the right to speak into their lives, making servanthood a prerequisite to discipling others. At LXP you will live a lifestyle of serving. As you may know "charity begins at home," you will be expected to serve one another in the house. And continue a life of service to outsiders and at ministry points. You will lead through service and not power or position.

Simplicity

Simplicity is the way of life at the leadership Experience. This is a life of sharing and giving. We share living space, bedroom space and time with each other, seeking the wisdom of God rather than the love of the world. Understanding that God is the provider, we seek to cultivate a life of godliness with contentment. In simplicity we strip off ourselves the needless fears, anxieties and worries of the day. With gladness and singleness of heart we seek to know God just as we are fully known by God.

Multiculturalism

LXP is always in a cross-cultural setting; people of different language, tribe, culture and nation live and serve together in unity before God. This requires self-death and as such, it serves as a discipleship tool because unity in diversity will always have to be earned. We desire to live a life worthy of the calling we have received; to be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love; making every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. Our God is a God of diversity. Our God is One; God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
